- [REDACTED]
1. In accordance with an executive order signed by President Jose A. REMON and Minister of Education Victor C. URRUTIA, five of the eight students expelled from the Santiago Normal School on 13 June 1952 for subversive activities have been readmitted.
 2. The students were allowed to resume their studies on the condition that should any more student trouble develop they will be automatically dismissed. The present administration hopes that readmitting the students will serve the following purposes:
 - a. It will indicate the liberal and fair attitude of the REMON administration.
 - b. The administration will have several influential student leaders working to prevent student strikes.
